THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY, THERAPIOL.

This successful and popular remedy, used in the Continental Hospitals by Ricord, Rostan, Jobert, Velpeau, and others, combines all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind, and surpasses everything hitherto employed.

THERAPIOL NO. 1 maintains its world-renowned and well-merited reputation for cures of the kidneys, pains in the back, and kindred ailments, affording prompt relief where other well-tried remedies have been powerless.

THERAPIOL NO. 2 for impurity of the blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, pains and swelling of joints, gout, rheumatism, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, arsenic, etc., to the destruction of sufferer's teeth and ruin of health. This preparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates all poisonous matter from the body.

THERAPIOL NO. 3 for exhaustion, sleeplessness, and all distressing consequences of dissipation, worry, overwork, etc. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigor to those suffering from the enervating influences of long residence in hot, unhealthy climates.

THERAPIOL is sold by the principal Chemists and Merchants throughout the world. Price in England, 2s. 6d. and 5s. 6d. In order, state which number is required, and observe that the word "Therapion" appears on the British Government Stamp (in white letters on a red ground) affixed to every genuine package by order of His Majesty's Hon. Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery.

Sunday Advertiser

More than thirteen hundred bluejackets are in town now. The Solace brought nearly seven hundred and last night, shortly before six o'clock, the naval transport Lawton pulled up to Naval Dock No. 2 with some 675 more. These men are from the ships of the Asiatic fleet and are going home. Nearly all of them have but a short time left to serve and some of them are already past the limit of their enlistment. Besides the enlisted men there are a number of cabin passengers, including naval officers, petty officers from the fleet and government employes from Guam. Among the passengers are several women, wives of men in the government service. Mr. Lemkuhl is executive secretary to the Governor of Guam. He is accompanied by his wife.

The Lawton sailed from Manila direct for Guam. On the way she was on the edge of a terrific typhoon, but proved herself a fine sea boat, agreeably surprising some of her officers by her excellent behavior. On the out trip the Lawton just escaped a great typhoon. The transport coaled at Guam and left on the evening of the 20th of July, just before the arrival of the Solace. Nothing of interest happened on the trip over from Guam. Strong trades were experienced on the way.

The Lawton will probably remain in port until Saturday. She has orders to hurry, but 500 tons of coal must be taken on and the chief engineer wished a little time to overhaul the engines.

The officers of the Lawton are: Comdr. W. Winder, commanding; Lt. Com. John C. Leonard, exec. officer; Lt. L. Shane, nav. officer; Ensign C. E. Landrum, Ensign L. Brooks, Ensign Galbraith, Ensign C. C. Moses; Midshipman John Rogers, Surg. H. P. Fitts, Asst. Surg. Jos. Miller, Paymaster John Irwin, Jr., Chaplain John F. Fleming, Pay Clerk Forrest, Chief Boatswain Hendry, Boatswain Shaw, Carpenter Floathy, Chief Gunner Roach, Warrant Machinist Venable.

The passengers are: Paymasters R. H. Pippin and J. S. Higgins; Asst. Surgeons H. F. Strine and R. H. Michaels; 1st Lt. Howard, U. S. M. C.; Warrant Machinists L. A. H. Wentworth, H. Heggenhangen, W. E. Stiles; Pay Clerk H. H. Pallanck, Boatswain H. S. Olsen, Asst. Surg. F. G. Munson, Construction Clerk H. S. A. Hanford, Mr. French, draughtsman; J. Dollar, chief officer, Collier service; W. Perry, chief Ensign, Collier service; S. F. Lipberry, master ship fitter; Mr. and Mrs. Lemkuhl, Mr. Nelson, Mrs. Googins and two children.

SUGAR SHIPMENTS DULL.

The sugar season is just about over and the great warehouses, a few months ago crammed to the roof with bags of powdered sweetness, are almost empty now. Sugar is still coming in from the other islands on the island steamers but barely fast enough to fill the waiting ships. The Mikahala, arriving from Kauai ports yesterday, did not bring any sugar. The big Texan of the American-Hawaiian line did much to clean out the Railway warehouses. Yesterday the schooner Helene finished loading 17,666 bags of sugar from the Irwin warehouses at the Oceanic docks and shifted over to the Railway wharf to piece out her cargo. She will take 8000 bags there and when the steamer Helene gets in from Maui she will finish her cargo from the steamer's hold. The total cargo to be taken by the schooner is about 27,000 bags and the vessel will probably get away Friday. This piling out of cargoes shows how short the sugar supply is getting and will mark a decline in shipping business until the opening of the next season.

SOLACE BREAKS RECORD.

The naval transport Solace broke her wireless telegraph record Tuesday night when she called up Barber's Point on the wireless when still 160 miles at sea. The ship arrived in port yesterday morning, from Manila and Guam, having also called at other Oriental ports. She left Guam two days behind the Lawton. The Solace is crowded with passengers, the most of them being navy people although there are a few army officers, among them Brigadier General T. S. Lebo, who succeeded General Wood in the Moro country. Col. Duncan and daughters of Ken tucky are also passengers. On the ship is a stowaway, a little Australian boy who will be deported to Manila. The Solace has rush orders and will get away for the Coast as soon as possible. She will take on 600 tons of coal here and may not get away until Saturday although she may sail tonight or tomorrow.

QUEER CARGO LIST.

There are boundless possibilities in the cargo list of the island steamer Nihau, Captain W. Thompson, which arrived from Koloa, Kauai, at 6 a. m. yesterday. The manifest reads:

"1 bull,
1 automobile."

It is to be hoped that the component parts of the cargo got along peaceably together and that the voyage did not result in any serious damage to either, although both articles are noted for their capability of inflicting serious damage upon innocent pedestrians. At any rate the cargo speaks well for the diversity of Kauai's exports.

DISPENSES WITH TUG.

Captain Schmidt of the barkentine Irmgard performed a feat of seamanship not often seen in this harbor nowadays, Tuesday. He decided not to require the services of the tug Fearless, so he sailed out of the harbor without a tug. The feat is greater when it is said that the Irmgard was berthed at the Railway wharf No. 1, in the inner basin. Ships often sailed out of the harbor before tugs came into general use in the islands, but the feat has been a rare one in recent years.

SHIPPING NOTES.

Mail to the Coast will probably be dispatched on the Solace.

The Oceanic liner Alameda went on the dry dock at San Francisco this trip and was cleaned.

The barkentine Irmgard and the schooner Cecilia Suden left for the Coast Tuesday afternoon.

The bark Mary L. Cushing got away from her anchorage in the cove yesterday noon bound for Elele.

The steamer Mikahala arrived from Kauai and Nihau ports at 5:40 a. m. yesterday with 250 head of sheep.

The Occidental & Oriental liner Coptic should have left San Francisco at 1 p. m. yesterday for Honolulu and the Orient.

The British tramp steamer Kirklee, which came here from Newcastle some weeks ago with coal, returned to the Australian port yesterday afternoon in ballast.

Tomorrow morning the ferry boat Alameda from San Francisco is due to arrive. Special interest is centered in the arrival of the favorite liner because she brings later advices concerning the Bennington disaster and revised lists of the dead and wounded.

The Pacific Mail liner Mongolia is expected to arrive from the Orient Monday evening or Tuesday morning. In any event she will hardly be able to get out before Tuesday afternoon, as she has 1300 tons of freight for this port. She has room for 150 cabin passengers.

PERSONAL PARTICULARS.

Starr J. Murphy for six years has been charity manager for John D. Rockefeller, drawing a handsome salary for work done as head of the bureau of benevolence.

Rider Haggard says of President Roosevelt: "He is in every sense the biggest man I have seen in the United States—the most straight thinking and most foreseeing."

Gen. Thomas T. Eckert, Gen. Thomas W. Vincent, of Washington, and Henry Uke, a portrait painter, are the only survivors of the 28 persons present at Abraham Lincoln's death.

John A. Conquest, father of Ida Conquest, the actress, although worth $500,000, is a laborer, packing fish in Boston at $2 a day. He says he works for the pleasure it affords him and that "work brings health, and that's better than wealth."

"Indian Dave," of Vassar, Mich., is at least 100 years old. Notwithstanding his advanced age the old man takes long tramps about the country on hunting and fishing expeditions and carries himself with an erectness that would do credit to a much younger man.

Charles H. Holm, paper-hanger of Malden, Mass., the father of 24 children by one wife, is nearly 82 years old and his enlistment in the United States navy in 1837 probably antedates that of any living man. His pension began at two dollars a month and he now gets $12.

Mrs. Emma Ranslow Allen, of Swanton, Vt., aged 96, has joined the Woman's Relief Corps of Jesse A. Jewett post. G. A. R. Mrs. Allen's grandfather was with Arnold at Quebec. She is also grandniece of Samuel Hopkins, a signer of the declaration of independence.
